2. As personally directed by the Dewan, the matter is subd for order. In the Supreme Legislative Council of Br. India the practice now rule now is that a Shangan Shd apply thru a member. Madras has recently adopted this rule. If ~~appt~~ considered desirable our rule 5.8 may also be amended suitably (Cf. R. Madras rule 6.1.1) by moving an appropriate proposition in the next meeting of the Leg. Council.
The rule has to be passed by the Leg. Council. Please see Sec 11(1) of the Regn.

2. The rule in Madras has been recently modified by requiring such persons to make their applications to the Secretary of the Council through a Member, at least two days before the meeting.

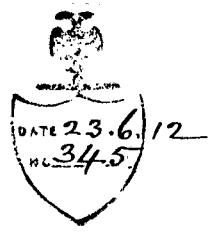

3. It is proposed to suitably amend our rules by moving a proposition at the next meeting of the Council. and I solicit sanction to do so. If the proposed visitor is introduced by a Member of the Legislative Council, it will be easy for the President to allow admission, whereas without such introduction the President will have to depend upon his own knowledge of the visitor, which in several cases may be very little or none at all; or he may have to make inquiries for which there will not be the necessary

18. The point for consideration is, whether the alteration of the Rules of Business which was agreed to by the Legve Council at its meeting held on the 4th inst. should be sent up to Govt for sanction before promulgation. Under the wording of Sec. 11 of the Legve Council Regⁿ, no such formal permission seems necessary, though under the proviso, hereto, Govt have the power to disallow any such rules.
